

Please do not screw XM radio by cutting it out of local weather and traffic . A few years ago emasculated low power community radio in deference to the big wattage-big money-big politics broadcasters. That's enough mischief. Thank you.